Report on LMS Admin Training Workshop June 2021
Name of Department	Second phase LMS Training Workshop by Dr. Prashant Mulay	Academic Year	2020-2021

Report on second phase online LMS training workshop:

Annasaheb Magar College, Hadapsar Pune, Pune District Board and Savitribai Phule Pune University's Department of E-Learning jointly organized LMS to facilitate online learning for students. The training will be given in four phases. In the first phase LMS training to LMS admins, second phase training on how to use LMS by professors, how to interact with your subjects and students and how to provide them educational materials, In the third phase training, the professors will learn how to impart online courses to the students, impart online education, record the attendance and examine the students on LMS and in the fourth phase, all the students will be trained to use LMS.

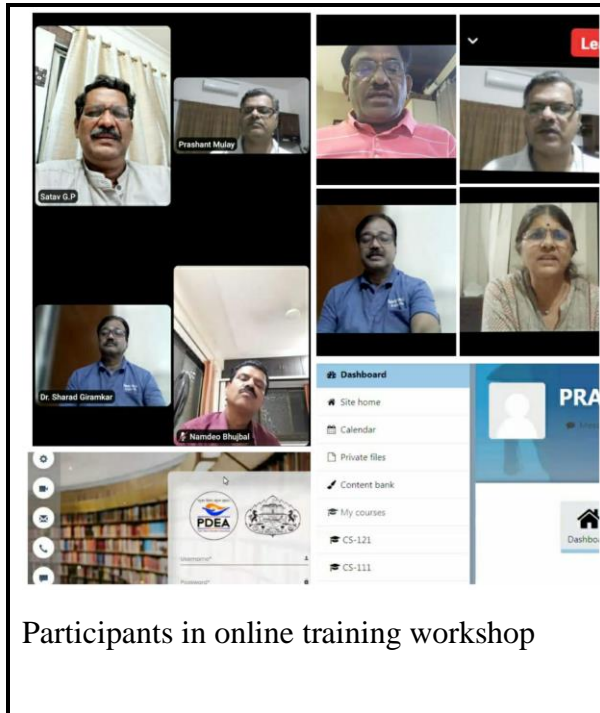

The online inauguration of the second phase training workshop was done by the auspicious hands of Principal Dr. Pandit Shelke on Tuesday 8th June 2021. On the occasion of inauguration, he said that in the present pandemic situation during the Corona period, the students in the rural areas of the college should take care not to be deprived of education. He congratulated trainees. The second phase of training was conducted by Dr. Prashant Mulay (the vice-principal of the college). He had given training on how to bring in the students in the LMS system and how to provide educational materials to the students at the grassroots level. A total of 94 professors of the college were trained in the second phase of LMS training. All the members of the LMS system worked hard to make this training workshop a success. The training was moderated by college LMS coordinator Dr. Sharad Giramkar.
